

Ehab Anis AlAmeri
Board Member
Emirates Institute for Banking and Financial Studies

Mr. Ehab Al Ameri currently retains the position of Chief Human Resources Officer for the Central Bank of the UAE where he spearheads key HR projects, conveying business strategies into people strategies with a focus on organisation development, culture, talent management, talent acquisition and the end to end ownership of the employee experience.

Ehab has a wealth of experience being a leader in Human Resources for over 30 years. His vast expertise lies within management, strategy, talent development, professional efficiency and driving large-scale change. Prior to joining the Central Bank of the UAE, Ehab worked in several organizations covering various sectors including the Emirates Integrated Telecommunications Company, First Abu Dhabi Bank (Formerly NBAD and First Gulf Bank) where he established NBAD Academy and the Abu Dhabi Company for Onshore Oil Operations.

Aside From his current role, Mr. Ehab is the Chairman of the UAE Bank Federation HR Practise Committee and remains an advocate for building high performing teams through strategic organisational design, workforce planning and talent management. Over the years, Mr. Ehab has won multiple governmental awards in the HR Leadership, Growth and Emiratisation including HR Manager of the Year – Banking UAE (Special category / Regional) by IAIR and the Lifetime Executive Learning Award.

Mr. Ehab holds an MBA from Hull University in the United Kingdom as well as a certification in the Programme of Executive Development from IMD in Switzerland.