

Julia has 10 years of combined experience teaching business communication, soft skills, and English as a foreign language. Her teaching experience has spanned across four countries: in her home country of the United States, South Korea, Australia, and currently in the United Arab Emirates. Julia has a Master of Arts degree in Applied Linguistics from the University of Illinois at Chicago. Her study of linguistics has an added emphasis on teaching English as a foreign language (TESOL) to adult language learners. Julia earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in Community Psychology and International Politics from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois. Throughout her career, she has lectured in public and private institutes and universities. Additionally, she has served on curriculum, material, and education development boards. Overall, Julia aims to incorporate creativity, pedagogy, students' needs, and technology into each lesson.