

Dr. Abhay Nagale, ACA, CFA, PhD

Dr. Abhay Nagale is working with Emirates Institute for Banking and Financial Studies as Sr. Lecturer. At EIBFS he is responsible for teaching full time academic programs and training courses. He conducts training in areas like Fintech and Analytics, Treasury and Investments, Banking and Credit.

He has over 15 years of work experience. He started his career with Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited, an Oil PSU in India. At HPCL he was working in the commercial department of Direct Sales SBU at their marketing head office. After a substantial stint in industry he moved to academics.

Dr. Abhay Nagale is a Chartered Accountant, ICAI and a CFA® Charterholder, CFA Institute. He has a Ph.D. in finance from Indian Institute of Technology Bombay. His Ph.D. thesis is titled "A cross model study of Bankruptcy Prediction: Evidence from India". In this study Neural Network technique was used for prediction of bankruptcy. The Neural Network model developed in this study was able to predict bankruptcy of companies with 80 per cent accuracy three years prior to bankruptcy.

He has received the received the "Best Faculty PGDM (2017-19)" Award at National Institute of Securities Markets, India and "Best Student Paper Award" at the 6th Annual International Conference on Accounting and Finance, Singapore. He has published several research papers in journals listed in ABDC Journal Quality List.