

Mr. Richard Paul Taylor

Dip.Ed., B.Ed., M.A.

Richard Taylor
Sr Lecturer

Richard Taylor is a Senior Lecturer at the Emirates Institute for Banking and Financial Studies (EIBFS), Dubai, UAE. During his 30+ year career in education, he has contributed to the field in different capacities such as English language teacher, maths and science teacher, teacher trainer, textbook author, project manager, academic program coordinator, curriculum leader, editor and researcher.

Prior to joining EIBFS, Richard taught Emiratis in the Foundations Program at the Higher Colleges of Technology, in Sharjah and Dubai for nine years. Before coming to the UAE, Richard taught in higher education, secondary education and vocational certification programs in Japan and Australia. As part of his personal development and professional education, Richard has completed training in Neurolinguistic Programming (NLP) and investment programs.

Richard has carried out extensive research in language education and pedagogy. He has published 35 papers in peer reviewed journals and as book chapters and he has co-authored "Internet English: WWW-Based Communication Activities", a prototype textbook on using the web for teaching English Communication Skills (published by Oxford University Press). His research has been cited over 240 times. Currently Richard is pursuing his Ph.D. in Gamification with the University of Queensland in Australia.