

Divya Madhavan is a Certified Teaching Professional has 14 years of experiences as a lead instructor / Curriculum Developer and faculty of Mathematics, Statistical Science, Algebra, Applied Calculus, Operational Research, Quantitative Business Analysis, Research Methodology and Business Administration. Divya Madhavan is pursuing her Ph.D. programme in General Management and has submitted her thesis for awarding of Doctorate programme. She has composed few text books on Financial Mathematics and Statistics for Business with worksheets. She has edited the lab manual for these courses, introducing technological and pedagogical innovations adapted to each year's students.

Divya's research interests are in probability, optimization and their applications to business and economics. Her joint research paper has appeared in IJRBF-ISSN journal of EIBFS which focus on the Applied Probability, Management Science, Mathematics of Operations Research, Operations Research, and Stochastic Processes and their Applications.

Divya had taught core courses such as Probability, Statistics and Quantitative Business Analysis course for the Bachelor and Master in Management Studies. She has taught and supervised Math 105L and 106L, entry-level calculus courses at Patuck Gala College of Commerce and Management affiliated to University of Mumbai, India. She has served as a college (pre-major) advisor to dozens of undergraduate students and as major advisor to a few.